Creating a User-centric ETD Experience

Melanie Kowalski, Emory University
Bethany Nash, Emory University

Conference Name: 2013 United States Electronic Thesis and Dissertation Association conference

Publication Date: 2013-07-24

Type of Work: Poster

Permanent URL: https://pid.emory.edu/ark:/25593/rhrbf

Copyright information:

© the authors

This is an Open Access work distributed under the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License (http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/).

Accessed April 2, 2024 7:59 PM EDT
Creating a User-centric ETD Experience

Bethany Nash & Melanie Kowalski

Background
- ETD program began in 2007
- Older submission site needed a facelift for improved functionality and usability
- Current staffing levels prevented complete redevelopment of site
- Core staffing of program includes
  - Two Research Library Fellows each at 30% of her time
  - User Experience Librarian/ETD Coordinator at 30% of his time

Improved Outreach & Instruction
- Informational videos posted online for anytime access
- Increased promotion of sessions through emails to school listservs and inclusion on the library’s online and on-site calendars
- Copyright sessions now scheduled early in each semester
- More hands-on submission workshops scheduled based on school submission deadlines and with a representative from the Scholarly Communications Office at each session
- Documentation available on Libguide, ETD website, and Library Service Desk internal website
  - Helps front-line library staff address basic ETD questions, students and University staff outside library find answers to their questions, and future ETD coordinators quickly understand and maintain ETD profiles

Quantitative and Qualitative Measurements
- ETD program began in 2007
- Older submission site needed a facelift for improved functionality and usability
- Current staffing levels prevented complete redevelopment of site
- Core staffing of program includes
  - Two Research Library Fellows each at 30% of her time
  - User Experience Librarian/ETD Coordinator at 30% of his time

Improved Outreach & Instruction
- Informational videos posted online for anytime access
- Increased promotion of sessions through emails to school listservs and inclusion on the library’s online and on-site calendars
- Copyright sessions now scheduled early in each semester
- More hands-on submission workshops scheduled based on school submission deadlines and with a representative from the Scholarly Communications Office at each session
- Documentation available on Libguide, ETD website, and Library Service Desk internal website
  - Helps front-line library staff address basic ETD questions, students and University staff outside library find answers to their questions, and future ETD coordinators quickly understand and maintain ETD profiles

Submission Site Update
- Site changes based on:
  - Usability testing
    - Analysis of common problems encountered during submission process
  - Initial testing with students
  - Soft roll-out to school program administrators
  - Feedback, bug identification, training on new system
- Features of the updated site include
  - Simpler system that is less prone to errors
  - Less text wherever possible
  - Increased functionality for school program administrators to lessen reliance on ETD coordinators for routine processes

Scholarly Communications’ Evolving Suite of Services
- New site covers copyright and publishing for faculty and students, open access, copyright for librarians
- New site reaches broader audience and provides more support to students

Background
- ETD program began in 2007
- Older submission site needed a facelift for improved functionality and usability
- Current staffing levels prevented complete redevelopment of site
- Core staffing of program includes
  - Two Research Library Fellows each at 30% of her time
  - User Experience Librarian/ETD Coordinator at 30% of his time

Improved Outreach & Instruction
- Informational videos posted online for anytime access
- Increased promotion of sessions through emails to school listservs and inclusion on the library’s online and on-site calendars
- Copyright sessions now scheduled early in each semester
- More hands-on submission workshops scheduled based on school submission deadlines and with a representative from the Scholarly Communications Office at each session
- Documentation available on Libguide, ETD website, and Library Service Desk internal website
  - Helps front-line library staff address basic ETD questions, students and University staff outside library find answers to their questions, and future ETD coordinators quickly understand and maintain ETD profiles

Next Steps
- Exit surveys at instruction sessions
- To evaluate sessions and fine tune outreach and instruction strategies
- Debriefing instructors after sessions
- Feedback from school administrators
- Review of help tickets at end of semester to determine areas for improvement

Scholarly Communications Web Presence
- New site covers copyright and publishing for faculty and students, open access, copyright for librarians
- New site reaches broader audience and provides more support to students

Improved Outreach & Instruction
- Informational videos posted online for anytime access
- Increased promotion of sessions through emails to school listservs and inclusion on the library’s online and on-site calendars
- Copyright sessions now scheduled early in each semester
- More hands-on submission workshops scheduled based on school submission deadlines and with a representative from the Scholarly Communications Office at each session
- Documentation available on Libguide, ETD website, and Library Service Desk internal website
  - Helps front-line library staff address basic ETD questions, students and University staff outside library find answers to their questions, and future ETD coordinators quickly understand and maintain ETD profiles

Next Steps
- Exit surveys at instruction sessions
- To evaluate sessions and fine tune outreach and instruction strategies
- Debriefing instructors after sessions
- Feedback from school administrators
- Review of help tickets at end of semester to determine areas for improvement