Roots of Success: Cultivating a Strong Program by Reaching Out to Your Users

Melanie Kowalski, Emory University
Bethany Nash, Emory University

Conference Name: South Carolina/Southeastern Library Association Joint Conference 2013
Publication Date: 2013-11-13
Type of Work: Poster
Permanent URL: https://pid.emory.edu/ark:/25593/rhrfv

Copyright information:
© the authors

Accessed January 20, 2020 3:51 PM EST
Roots of Success: Cultivating a Strong Program by Reaching Out to Your Users

Bethany Nash & Melanie Kowalski

Outcomes:
- Workout attendance
- Office hour consultations
- Help ticket counts
- # of questions @ Library Service Desk
- ETD statistics tracking

Context:
- What: Revamping of an Electronic Theses and Dissertations program
- Who: Two Research Library Fellows, One ETD Coordinator (30% time allocation each)
- When: 2012-2013 Academic Year
- Where: Emory University Libraries
- How: User-centric approach to library services